VOL. XXXV.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, AUGUST 30, 1907.

NO. 52.

In Loving Memory of Mrs. Nannie McClure.

On Aug. 11, 1907, Nannie, the beloved wife of Fred McClure, passed from this "Sorrowful Star" to her heavenly home. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Goode and was 25 years old. All her life she loved her Savior, acknowledging Him as her Lord at the tender age of 12 years. The sweet innocence of her religion passed upon family, friends and neighbors and all classes speak of her charity and thoughtfulness of the feelings of others. A complication of diseases set up which baffled the skill of one of our finest physicians, Dr. W. J. Edmiston, and the eminent Dr. Brown, of Stanford. She was tenderly nursed by Mrs. Sabra McClure, the most skillful nurse in our county, and all that a devoted husband and fond parents could do was of no avail. Jesus wanted her in a fairer clime. For her all pain and sorrow have ceased and she has entered into the joys "no eye hath seen, no ear hath heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of man to know what the Lord hath prepared for those who love Him." A loving, tender companionship has been severed and Fred will look for her and long to see her sweet face and hear her encouraging words again and as he looks into the eyes of his little motherless child he feels that no one ever had to suffer like he does, and so with the stricken parents, who cherish her last loving words, "Papa, Mamma," they too feel that none ever had so heavy a burden; but some day there will be another transported to this same beautiful land if they so desire it; and then another will go, and as they view the grandeur and drink in the celestial beauties, they will say: "Oh, why should the people on earth grieve over death?" When our Savior conquered death His victory was complete and death has no terrors, the grave no horror to those who die in the Lord, and "precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints." As far back as the ages roll, death has been the common portion of all things and tears, disappointments and partings will continue to come as long as we remain upon earth. But in that beautiful country we read in God's word, no such things as pain, death or partings will ever come and no place for a tear. So, when you know that Nannie has entered a land of joy, don't grieve as those without hope, but put your house in order, make all preparations for your heavenly journey; let her sweet memory be your beacon to light you homeward, and once again husband, father, mother and brother will be a united family, where the sorrows and cares of this earthly life can not enter to mar your joys. So trust your loved one to the one who loaned her to you here and you will see her again, not in the poor, weak, fleshy form you last looked upon, but gloriously, radiantly beautiful, she will exclaim: "Oh, husband, mother, father, brother, I've been looking and waiting to welcome you home." So sorrow-stricken ones we point you to Jesus, Who doeth all things well; and when you pass the portal you will understand what to-day seems so deeply mysterious, for Nannie has

"Life's race well run,
Life's work well done,
Life's crown well won
Now cometh rest."

HAD AN AWFUL TIME.

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him.

It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak in good word for this remedy.—Sam H. Gwin, Concord, Ga. For sale by all druggists.

Hon. Augustus Wilson kept up his habit of bolting in his Mayville speech. This time it was not George D. Todd, the Republican nominee for mayor of Louisville, nor was it the Hon. Godfrey Hunter, Republican nominee for United States Senator, but his party platform that he bolted. Hon. Augustus declared that he did not believe in prohibition for the large cities, while his party platform advocates a "Uniform County Unit Bill." Frankfort Journal.

"Everybody Should Know," says C. G. Hays, a prominent business man of Bluff, Mo., "that Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the quickest and surest healing salve ever applied to a sore, burn or wound, or to a case of piles. I've used it and know what I'm talking about." Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store, 25c.

Democrats To Open State Campaign. Preparations Made For Grand Rally at Auditorium, Lexington, Ky., Aug. 31, 1907.

Prominent Candidates Will Make Their Initial Addresses.

The State Democratic Campaign will be launched at Lexington on next Saturday, Aug. 31st. Hon. W. P. Kimball, Congressman-elect of the Ashland district, has been selected by the State Campaign Committee to act as chairman of the meeting and to introduce the several speakers on this occasion. The addresses will be delivered by Judge S. W. Hager, democratic nominee for governor; Hon. J. C. W. Beckham, governor, and Hon. John K. Hendrick, democratic nominee for attorney general. With these speeches it is intended that they shall make a complete answer to the charges made by the republican leaders, and they will define the issue as between the parties, fully and clearly, and will also recite what democracy has stood for in our State, the helpful results it has attained and what is promised for the future.

This will be a meeting of the "Great Common People," determined on leading Kentucky's Southland Hosts onward and upward to the achievement of even greater prosperity and to higher morals. It will be a day that will go down in the history of Lexington as a great political awakening, calculated to sweep the republican ticket off its feet. Thousands are going to Lexington and Lexington is fully prepared to receive and welcome them. Pledges of loyalty and support are being received from every town and county with railroad connections to Lexington, and it is considered by the party leaders that this meeting will win thousands of votes for the democratic ticket.

All railroads are giving reduced rates of one and one-third fare round trip for this occasion. Special trains will be run where ever necessary to accommodate the people.

Farmers' Dependents.

All classes look to the farmer for support. The persons and things that constitute the army of the farmers' dependents are various and similar. Let us enumerate a few of them: Preachers and hawks, lawyers and foxes, doctors and ninks, manufacturers, merchants, millers and mice, rats, rogues, roughs, officers and owls, politicians, polecats and saloonists, drummers and possums, and last and not least, English sparrows and cigarette dudes. Poor farmer! What will he do?

Onward he plods,
Hopping his clods,
Swallowing political rot,
It's all the sense he's got.

ONE OF 'EM.

Remedy for Diarrhoea. Never Known to Fail.

"I want to say a few words for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have used this preparation in my family for the past five years and have recommended it to a number of people in York county and have never known it to fail to effect a cure in any instance. I feel that I cannot say too much for the best remedy of the kind in the world."—S. Jemison, Spring Grove, York County, Pa. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Charles Mershon, who it will be remembered played havoc in the C. N. O. & T. P. yards about two weeks ago by jumping on an engine and opening up the throttle while the track was blocked ahead of him, was captured in Ludlow last week by the road officers and brought to Somerset, where he was released after giving bond to appear at the October term of the Circuit Court.—Journal.

HUSTONVILLE.

If you want a blue grass farm in the garden spot of the earth, call on Williams & Co., Hustonville.

A splendid 200-acre blue grass farm on rural route, three miles from town, in high state of cultivation, good improvements and lays well, for $31,500. Payments to suit purchaser. Williams & Co., real estate agents.

For an Impaired Appetite.

To improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. J. H. Seltz, of Detroit, Mich., says: "They restored my appetite when impaired, relieved me of a bloated feeling and caused a pleasant and satisfactory movement of the bowels." Price, 25 cents. Samples free by all druggists.

A Massachusetts man left $100 a hundred years ago to be placed on interest and its proceeds given to charity at the expiration of a hundred years. The time has expired and the beneficiaries now receive $19,451.72.

NEWS NOTES.

Louis Higgins, who murdered W. L. Copple and wife, near Rosalie, Neb., May 12 last, was lynched.

Officials of the American Tobacco Company state that the shutting down of the company's factory in Cincinnati is permanent.

The election on local option in Green county resulted in a victory for the "drys." The "dry" side received 1,079 votes and the wet side 265.

A tornado struck the towns of Woodsfield and New Castle, O., wrecking a number of buildings. Near Woodsfield a two-year-old child was killed.

A three-year-old son of A. B. McKinney, of Bath county, got hold of a box of matches and setting fire to his clothes was soon burned to death.

Arrangements have been completed in New York for the organization of a $50,000,000 syndicate which plans to develop several million acres of oil lands in Mexico.

Controller Plant, of the Southern railway, testified at the hearing of the North Carolina rate case and said that under the new law the earnings would be only 33-100 of 1 per cent.

Three fires within the space of a few hours at Paducah caused a loss estimated at more than $55,000. At one time it was feared that the entire business section of the city would be wiped out.

Jeff Lovell met death under the wheels of his engine while working in the yard at Somerset. Another yard engine ran into his engine, throwing Lovell from the cab underneath the wheels of his engine.

At Mt. Sterling, Mrs. Lucy Brumet, 19-years-old, married only three years and about to become a mother, shot and instantly killed Alvin Thomas, a prosperous farmer, 75 years old, after Thomas had fired three shots at her.

Every street car employee in Henderson, from engineer to motormen and conductors, went on a strike, and not a wheel was turned Tuesday. The men quit because the company reduced wages and lengthened the hours of work.

The Louisville and Nashville train between Winchester and Flannigan Station, struck a wagon driven by a Negro, killed the driver and carried his lifeless body on the cow catcher half a mile before the crew of the train knew that anything serious had happened.

The cases against Elbert Hargis and William Britton, charged with complicity in the murder of Dr. B. D. Cox, were passed to Oct. 21 on motion of the Commonwealth. The absence of John Smith, an important witness for the Commonwealth, was the reason for the continuance.

The bridge over Tradewater river, on the Illinois Central railroad, half a mile from Dawson Springs, was almost torn away by a collision between two freight trains. One engine was thrown into the river, the engineer and fireman going down, but neither was seriously injured.

Mrs. Lucy Brumet, the young woman who shot and killed Alvin Thomas, an aged man, near Mt. Sterling, was exonerated by the coroner's jury, which found that the woman shot in self-defense. It is not probable that the family of the dead man will prosecute the case further.

In a letter to Commonwealth's Attorney Robert B. Franklin, Gov. Beckham assures that official of his co-operation with him in seeing that W. S. Taylor is protected from arrest and allowed to return to the State of Indiana if he will come to Georgetown to testify in the next trial of Caleb Powers.

Mistaken in the dark for a "bootlegger," Sylvester Morris, 74-years-old, a retired minister of Tulsa, I. T., was shot and killed by C. R. Wilson, Wilson, in company with another deputy marshal, had arrested three "bootleggers" and were waiting for other violators of the law when Morris came driving by. He did not stop when ordered and was shot dead.

A mortgage was filed in the County Clerk's office at Lexington by the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company to the New York Trust Company and William H. White, of Richmond, Va., for $10,000,000, covering all franchises, rights, privileges, lands and terminals of the entire railway line. The mortgages will be filed in every county in Kentucky, West Virginia and Virginia, through which States the line runs.

Endorsed By The County.

"The most popular remedy in Otsego County, and the best friend of my family," writes Wm. M. Dietz, editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal, Gilbertsville, N. Y., "is Dr. King's New Discovery. It has proved to be an infallible cure for coughs and colds, making short work of the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in the house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for Lung and Throat diseases." Guaranteed to never disappoint the taker, by Penny's Drug Store. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

The wife of Surveyor J. W. Starns, of Pulaski, is dead.

Mrs. Nannie B. Jones has contracted for a $12,000 residence in Danville.

Engineer John L. Gray, running between Somerset and Chattanooga, was killed in the Q. & C. yards at Winfield, Tenn.

William Locker died at his home in the Buckeye section of Garrard county after an illness of several years, due to heart disease.

Daniel, 11-year-old son of Mack Meriman, of Boyle, let a rock fall on his index finger. The member was so badly mangled that it had to be amputated.

The Board of Trustees of Central University accepted the plans drawn by Chicago architects and two $100,000 buildings will be erected as soon as the work can be completed.

Completion of the Chenoa branch of the L. & N. railroad in Bell county has opened up many new coal mines in that county and several plants are taking out large amounts of the best grades of fuel.

The stock barn of J. B. Oatts on the Elk Spring pike near Monticello, was destroyed by fire. Ten horses and mules and a lot of feed and machinery were burned. Incendiarism is charged. The loss is about $5,000 without insurance.

Dee Wilham, son of J. T. Wilham, a Perryville merchant and stockman, was fatally wounded in a peculiar manner. Along with other little boys, he was swinging to the rear end of a wagon, riding, when his foot caught in the wheel. He was carried rapidly around three times and internal injuries were sustained.

The residence of R. E. Goddard, in the suburbs of Harrodsburg, was destroyed by fire during the absence of the family. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss is $10,000. This was the home of Beriah Magoffin before he became Governor of Kentucky during the Civil War. It is known in history as "Temple Hill."

A Harrodsburg dispatch says: A number of men called Tom Hale to the door at his home, on Richland creek, Saturday night, and when he emerged began firing into the houses. Hale held a candle in his hand, and this was shot into pieces. No one was hurt, but the house was riddled by bullets, according to reports. The affair is being thoroughly investigated and arrests are expected. Hale was indicted in the Campbell murder case and is out on bond.

One of the prettiest dinner parties of the summer was that given last week to Miss Martha Thompson and her guest, Miss Mary Eloise Hughes, by Judge and Mrs. W. C. Bell. The table was beautifully laid, and the menu included the choice edibles of the season. Miss Martha Thompson, with guest of honor at her right, made a most delightful hostess, while Judge and Mrs. Bell presided opposite with cordial dignity and grace. Four couples from the junior society made the party complete.—Harrodsburg Herald.

Augustus Travers, while attending church near Danville, almost caused a panic among the large congregation, says a dispatch. It was a late hour, and he yawned vigorously, sucking into his windpipe a large bug with horny legs. The insect began to scratch and claw, and Travers, emitted loud, gurgling sounds and strange guttural whoops. Travers was so pained and excited that he could tell no one the cause of his mysterious actions, and members of the congregation became frightened and began leaving the church. Finally the bug was ejected from the air passage. When the excitement occasioned by the incident had subsided, the minister drew a moral from the accident, by informing his congregation that the church was not the place to yawn.

FOR RENT.—Mrs. Wallace's property on Danville street apply to L. R. Hughes, Stanford, Ky.

THE State Election Commissions have appointed George Leach, democrat, and Dr. R. L. Davison, republican, as election commissioners for this county.

HON. J. M. ALVERSON was instrumental in having Senator R. L. Hubble chosen as judge of jack stock at the State Fair at Louisville, Sept. 16 to 21. It would be a hard matter to find a better judge of that class of stock than our clever countyman, the Senator.

MR. W. A. CARSON will begin assessing Lincoln county's "goods and chattels" next Monday, Sept. 2. He will be assisted by Messrs. A. A. Crutchfield and Jas. Anderson. Mr. Carson asks that all property holders have their lists ready when he calls and thus avoid delay.

THE average preacher doesn't get rich performing marriage ceremonies. Rev. W. E. Arnold, of Flemingsburg, who was here this week, told us that during his 23 years of ministry he had married 142 couples and had received only $411.59—a few cents over $4 for each ceremony. The largest amount he ever received was $15 and the smallest 50c.

A Negro who had criminally assaulted a white woman was apprehended by a mob, near Columbus, Miss., and hanged to a tree.

Stomach Muscles in Old Age

People should be more and more careful, as age advances, to see that their bowels move regularly. In this way they can keep themselves in good health and prolong life. The bowels are not as active in middle-life and old age as they are in youth, and with the majority there is a tendency to constipation of a chronic and obstinate nature. To ward off the possibility of serious diseases use Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the great herb laxative compound. It is especially suited to the use of elderly people because it is prompt but gentle in action and does its work without griping or weakening as is the case with salts, purgative waters and cathartic tablets. These should not be used by children, women, old folks or weak people because they are too violent in action and generally gripe. Furthermore, the results are temporary as reaction sets in and the bowels are bound up more than ever. A remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is very gentle in action and yet thoroughly effective, and as it contains no toxic properties, it strengthens the system instead of weakening it. The results are permanent because gradual, and many can in a short time do away with the use of all laxatives. It will cure the most chronic constipation, dyspepsia, liver trouble, biliousness, flatulency, sour stomach, weak stomach, bloating, drowsiness after eating and such other stomach, liver and bowel troubles. To prove how effective it is in serious cases the experience of Mr. Armstrong, of Decatur, Ill., can be cited. He suffered from a gunshot wound during the Civil War which caused a partial paralysis of the bowels and he has had ever since to use a laxative. He says he never found anything so effective, or which worked so near to nature, as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Try it and you will say the same. The price is 50 cents or $1 a bottle at any drugist.

FREE TEST These wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by addressing the company. This offer is to prove that the remedy will do as we claim, and is only open to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Gentlest yet most effective laxative for children, women and old folks. A guaranteed permanent home cure. THE PUBLIC VERDICT: "No Laxative So Good and Sure as DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN." This product bears purity guarantee No. 17, Washington, D. C. PEP-SIN SYRUP CO. 119 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period, that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store.

Effective war, it is announced, is being waged against the "Blackhand" throughout Pennsylvania by the State constabulary, and the indications are that the troops will soon rid the Commonwealth of these murderous organizations.

Ten Years in Bed.

"For ten years I was confined to my bed with disease of my kidneys," writes R. A. Gray, J. P. of Oakdale, Ind. "It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. Deceased was 35 years of age, and leaves a wife and several small children. Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church Monday afternoon by Rev. J. L. Owens.

Frequently you pick up a local paper and after glancing at it, wearily thrust it aside, remarking: "Nothing in the old paper!" Did you ever stop to think what that phrase means? It means that no misfortune has befallen anyone in our city, that no fire has wiped out a neighbor's worldly goods, that the grim angel of death has not crossed the threshold of a friend, that no man driven by hatred or fear, has taken the life of a fellow being, that no poor devil, haunted by the past or misdeeds of some other, has crossed the great divide by his own hand, and many other things that ought not to have happened have not happened. So next time you pick up any paper and its headlines do not announce a tragedy give a little thanks instead of grumbling because there is no news.—Harrdsburg Herald.
